

As a licensed Amateur Radio operator, I am completely against the BPL testing and possible implenting of the program. The interference that would be generated would my many of our Ham bands unusable. Thank you.